

BEFORE THE PUBLIC DISCLOSURE COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

In the Matter of Enforcement Action Against:

Committee to Elect Rylee Fleury

Respondent.

Case No. 158645

PARTIAL STIPULATION AS TO FACTS

The parties to this Stipulation, namely, the Public Disclosure Commission Staff, through its Executive Director, Peter Frey Lavalley (Staff), and Respondent, the Committee to Elect Rylee Fleury (the Committee), submit this Partial Stipulation as to Facts in this matter. In lieu of a contested hearing to establish the underlying facts of this case, the parties jointly present this partial stipulation to the Commission for its review and approval, with the goal of limiting the administrative hearing to the remaining contested facts in this case. The parties agree that the Commission has the authority to accept, reject, or modify the terms of this Stipulation. The parties further agree that in the event the Commission suggests modification to any term of this agreement, each party reserves the right to reject that modification. In the event either party rejects a modification, this matter will proceed to a full hearing on the merits before the Commission.

JURISDICTION

The Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) has jurisdiction over this proceeding pursuant to Chapter 42.17A RCW, the state campaign finance and disclosure laws; Chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act; and Title 390 WAC.

FACTS

1. On May 24, 2024, Rylee Fleury registered a candidate committee, choosing the Full Reporting option, for the Respondent Committee with the PDC. On June 3, 2024, Mr. Fleury amended the registration to reflect that he was the candidate, the Committee's name was changed, and he added Larry R. Jensen as the Assistant and Ministerial Treasurer. The Committee’s purpose was to support Mr. Fleury’s campaign for County Commissioner, Position 1, in Skagit County.

2. The Committee’s registration identified Tim Garrison as the Treasurer. However, throughout the campaign and Staff’s investigation, Mr. Garrison never communicated with Staff, nor did he file any of the Committee’s Cash Receipts, Monetary Contribution (C-3) and Receipts & Expenditure Summary (C-4) reports. Mr. Jensen and Mr. Fleury were the primary contacts for the Committee, with Mr. Jensen submitting all the campaign reporting and being the main person that Staff worked with during the investigation.

- A C-3 report (#110284452) for a deposit on December 23, 2024, due January 10, 2025, was submitted 4 months late on May 12, 2025. This C-3 reported a loan of $97.25 received. If a candidate has debt, the candidate is allowed to continue accepting contributions until December 31 of the election year. For candidates subject to contribution limits, the candidate is prohibited from accepting aggregate contributions from the same contributor exceeding $1,200 per election.

6. The following mandatory C-4 reports, for the general election period, were submitted late:

- The 21-Day C-4 report for the period September 1 to October 14, 2024, was due on October 15, 2024. It was submitted one day late on October 16, 2024. The report, #110253328, identified $11,685 in receipts and $9,683.03 in expenditures.
- A combined C-4 report, #110284449, covering the period of October 15 to December 31, 2024, was submitted on May 12, 2025, 6.5 months after the election cycle ended on December 31, 2024. The combined report included the following late-filed C-4 reports:
 - The 7-Day C-4 report, for the period October 15 to 28, 2024, due October 29, 2024;
 - The Post-General C-4 report, for the period October 29 to November 30, 2024, due December 10, 2024;

- The End of Election Cycle C-4, for the period December 1 to December 31, 2024, due January 10, 2024.

The combined C-4 report identified $1,647.25 in receipts and $8,898.72 in expenditures. The report also indicated the campaign was overdrawn by $1,097.25, which matches the amount of loans reported by the Committee.

- On September 19, 2025, C-4 report #110315179 was submitted for the period of January 1, 2025, to May 31, 2025, showing an in-kind contribution from Rylee Fleury to the campaign for “Repayment of loan $97.25 / over contribution of $150 by Larry Jensen.”
