Subject: PDC Case 172512 regarding Troy Anderson

Troy Anderson:

The Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) completed its review of the complaints filed by Conner Edwards, Jeff Lyon, and Gary Harris on May 16, 2025, May 21, 2025, June 21, 2025, June 25, 2025, and July 18, 2025. The complaints alleged violations of RCW 42.17A.235, .240, .320 & .710 for failure to timely and accurately file reports; failure to include sponsor ID on political advertising; and failure to accurately disclose information on F-1 report.

Applicable Laws and Rules

Pursuant to RCW 42.17A.235\(3\)\(a\), each treasurer of a candidate or political committee is required to file a report on the tenth day of each month during which they are not participating in an election campaign only if the committee 1) received a contribution or made an expenditure in the preceding calendar month; and 2) either total contributions received or total expenditures made since the last such report exceed $750.

Pursuant to RCW 42.17A.240\(2\), monetary contributions are disclosed on C-3 reports, which must include, but are not limited to: 1) the name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 during the period covered by the report; 2) the monetary value and date of each contribution, except for the items specifically mentioned in subsection (2)(a) through (g); and 3) the aggregate value of all contributions received from each person during the campaign. "Contribution," as defined, includes an in-kind contribution, which is disclosed on a C-4 report.

RCW 42.17A.320 requires that all political advertising supporting or opposing a candidate or ballot proposition includes the sponsor's name and address.

RCW 42.17A.710 An elected or appointed official is required to file a Personal Financial Affairs Statement (F-1 report) with the PDC on or before April 15th each year, that discloses accurate personal financial information for themselves and their spouse or registered domestic partner, if any, for the preceding calendar year.

Background and Findings

- The Respondent was their own treasurer for the 2025 campaign until May 2025.
- The Respondent had difficulties filing the required C-3 and C-4 reports causing reports to be filed late; the February and March 2025 reports were between 33 and 64 days late.
- The Respondent amended C-4 reports to include the required details once notified of the issue.
- The Respondent had a partial sponsor identification on the campaign website and corrected this to provide all required information within nine days of the case notification sent on May 22, 2025.
- The Respondent added labels to their signs to include full sponsor identification once noticed on June 25, 2025 of the issue.
- The Respondent amended their F-1 report on October 15, 2025 to remove the indicator showing a modification was requested to withhold the real estate owned by them.

Summary and Resolution

Pursuant to WAC 390-37-060(1)(d), you are receiving a formal written warning concerning RCW 42.17A.235, .240, .320 & .710 for failure to timely and accurately file reports; failure to include sponsor ID on political advertising; and failure to accurately disclose information on an F-1 report. Staff expects you to timely and accurately file reports; to include sponsor ID on political advertising; and to accurately disclose information on the F-1 report. The Commission will consider this formal written warning in deciding on further Commission action if there are future violations of PDC laws or rules.

After consideration of all the circumstances, further proceedings would not serve the purpose of the Fair Campaign Practices Act. Under WAC 390-37-070, the executive director, at any time prior to consideration by the Commission, may dismiss a complaint which on its face, or as shown by investigation, provides reason to believe that a violation has occurred, but also shows that the respondent is in substantial compliance with the relevant statutes or rules, or shows that formal enforcement action is not warranted. The executive director must report at each regular Commission meeting all complaints dismissed.

Based on this information, the PDC has dismissed this matter in accordance with RCW 42.17A.755(1).
