Subject: PDC Case 176407

Vinita Kak:

The Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) completed its review of the complaint filed July 20, 2025 by Conner Edwards. The complaint alleged violations of RCW 42.17A.320 by failing to include proper sponsor identification for political advertising, specifically failure to include sponsor identification on yard signs.

Applicable Laws and Rules

RCW 42.17A.320 requires that all political advertising supporting or opposing a candidate or ballot proposition include the sponsor's name and address. Previously, campaign yard signs 4 feet by 8 feet or smaller were not required to include sponsor identification. The Washington State Legislature removed that exemption by passing House Bill 2032 in 2024. In 2024, yard signs printed prior to the effective date of the law were exempt from the new requirements. Starting in 2025, all yard signs, regardless of when they were printed, must have sponsor identification.

Background and Findings

- Vinita Kak registered with the PDC as a 2025 candidate for the House of Representatives, Legislative District 41.
- The complaint included a picture of a blue yard sign which they cite as evidence of a violation of RCW 42.17A.320. The sign, which reads “Vote Vinita” does not include any sponsor identification.
- In a written response submitted to the PDC on Aug. 1, 2025, Kak stated “Apologies for the oversight. My campaign will begin removing the signs and then affixing a sticker (10% of the yard sign) to them so that we are compliant.”
- Kak did not advance to the 2025 General Election.

Summary and Resolution

Based on our findings, staff has determined that, in this instance, any violation that may have occurred was minor and has been cured. After consideration of the circumstances, further proceedings would not serve the purpose of this chapter. Under WAC 390-37-060, the executive director, at any time prior to consideration by the commission, may dismiss a complaint which on its face, or as shown by investigation, provides reason to believe that a violation has occurred, but also shows that the respondent is in substantial compliance with the relevant statutes or rules, or shows that formal enforcement action is not warranted.

Based on this information, the PDC has dismissed this matter in accordance with RCW 42.17A.755\(1\).

Pursuant to WAC 390-37-060(1)(d), however, you are receiving a formal written warning concerning including proper sponsor identification on all political advertising. PDC staff expect you to include complete sponsor identification in the future. The Commission will consider this formal written warning in deciding on further Commission action if there are future violations of PDC laws or rules.
