Thank you for contacting us.

We are proud that our campaign has embraced all transparency requirements and, even after the election, will open our books for review to anyone who wishes to review them.

We are always available to work with PDC to review our advertisement for compliance sponsorship. The ad referenced in the complaint was not generated by, or coordinated with, our campaign.

We appreciate the PDC's role in the election process and we are available to respond to any further queries you may have.
